v 1 methodology and african prehistory v 2 ancient civilizations of africa v 3 africa from the seventh to the eleventh century v 4 africa from the twelfth to the sixteenth century v 5 africa from the sixteenth to the eighteenth century v 6 the nineteenth century until the 1880s v 7 africa under foreign domination 1880 1935 v 8 africa since 1935 assesses the importance attached by african societies to their past and the growth and development of african historiography this is followed by accounts of the primary literary sources the oral and living traditions and african archaeology and its techniques there are further chapters on linguistics migrations and historical geography before the second part of the book which deals specifically with earliest man and the prehistory of africa according to geographical area specific chapters are also devoted to prehistoric art agricultural techniques and the development of metallurgy the series is co published in africa with seven publishers in the united states and canada by the university of california press and in association with the unesco press professors haines and steckel bring together leading scholars to present an expansive population history of north america from pre columbian times to the present covering the populations of canada the united states mexico and the caribbean including two essays on the amerindian population this volume takes advantage of considerable recent progress in demographic history to offer timely knowlegeable information in a non technical format a statistical appendix summarizes basic demographic measures over time for the united states canada and mexico refuting the lies of afrocentrics does not imply disregarding or belittling the significance of the african continent and its peoples but rather a call to acknowledge the historical fact that views the ancient egyptian civilization as part of a global inclusive civilization network whereas egypt was not an island isolated from the rest of the world but rather was at the heart of the cultural interaction between africa asia europe and the ancient near east and it was influenced by all these cultures and contributed to each one of them this book is not a call for discrimination or inciting racial prejudices but rather is a serious and objective attempt to provide a rigorous scientific perspective about one of the most important chapters in human history which is ancient egyptian history this book comes to highlight the truth as scored by credible historical sources and modern genetic studies far from distortion or falsification to which the identity of the egyptian civilization was exposed at the hands of the afrocentric movement and its advocates this book aims to clarify and contest the afrocentric delusions about egypt and that is the ideology believing that the egyptian civilization is of black african origins which opens a new window before us to look at the pharaonic civilization away from externalities and misconceptions through historical documentation and genetic evidences the book also offers an accurate and objective perspective that sets the record straight and reveals the delusions cast upon the history of a great country that has been the focus of attention from the world for thousands of years

hood s unique and fascinating work probes the mythic roots of racial prejudice in western attitudes toward color with special attention to the history of ideas but also to pictorial images and popular movements hood documents the inception and growth of the myth of black carnality with its commingling of disdain and desire fear and fascination this volume covers the period from the end of the neolithic era to the beginning of the seventh century of our era this lengthy period includes the civilization of ancient egypt the history of nubia ethiopia north africa and the sahara as well as of the other regions of the continent and its islands publisher s description
